

2012 International Design Competition Winner

Carl Pucci and Efrian Carbaca of the Manhattan, NY based architecture firm of BumpZoid were awarded winning entry into the Nashua International Design Competition, a two-year effort that generated ideas that revitalized the Nashua Millyard.

The winning design can be viewed here.